CAUSE

On October 15, 2008, the undersigned officer conducted an unscheduled personal home contact at the defendant's residence. Upon arrival, he informed that he had some friends over playing video games. When contact was made with the defendant's "friends," the odor of alcohol was overwhelming. Further, it was evident that the defendant's friends were not of age to legally consume alcohol. Through further questioning, three of the four individuals admitted that they were not of legal drinking age. Subsequently, local law enforcement was notified but were unable to respond prior to the juveniles departing the residence. Mr. Wolfe understands by allowing minors to consume alcohol at this residence, he is committing the offense of contributing to the delinquency of minors. Further concerns were addressed with the fact that Mr. Wolfe has a history of substance abuse and was drinking alcohol with minors. He has since been referred back to substance abuse counseling. The above sanction appears warranted in response to the defendant's poor choice. Further he has agreed to said modification as evidenced by the signed waiver of hearing.
